This Policy is written in the context of and with regard to the statements below:

The Saffron Valley Collegiate

MISSION STATEMENT

The Saffron Valley Collegiate seek to provide a personalised educational experience that identifies and responds to the circumstances and needs of each individual young person and in doing so will enable them to fulfil their potential and become successful young people.

EQUALITIES STATEMENT

All who work at The Saffron Valley Collegiate are committed to the celebration of diversity, and the challenging of disadvantage and discrimination, in all its forms.

These values are explicit to the ethos of the Saffron Valley Collegiate and implicit in all policies and practices.

This publication scheme commits Saffron Valley Collegiate to make information available to the public as part of its normal business activities. The information covered is included in the classes of information mentioned below, where this information is held by the school. Additional assistance is provided to the definition of these classes in sector specific guidance manuals issued by the Information Commissioner.

The scheme commits Saffron Valley Collegiate:

- To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information, including environmental information, which is held by Saffron Valley Collegiate and falls within the classifications below.
- To specify the information which is held by Saffron Valley Collegiate and falls within the classifications below.
- To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information in line with the statements contained within this scheme.
- To produce and publish the methods by which the specific information is made routinely available so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public.
- To review and update on a regular basis the information Saffron Valley Collegiate makes available under this scheme.
- To produce a schedule of any fees charged for access to information which is made proactively available.
- To make this publication scheme available to the public.

- Information in draft form.
- Information that is no longer readily available as it is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage, or is difficult to access for similar reasons.

The method by which information published under this scheme will be made available

Saffron Valley Collegiate will indicate clearly to the public what information is covered by this scheme and how it can be obtained.

Where it is within the capability of Saffron Valley Collegiate, information will be provided on the website. Where it is impracticable to make information available on the website or when an individual does not wish to access the information by the website, Saffron Valley Collegiate will indicate how information can be obtained by other means and provide it by those means.

In exceptional circumstances some information may be available only by viewing in person. Where this manner is specified, contact details will be provided. An appointment to view the information will be arranged within a reasonable timescale.

Information will be provided in the language in which it is held or in such other language that is legally required. Where Saffron Valley Collegiate is legally required to translate any information, it will do so.

Obligations under disability and discrimination legislation and any other legislation to provide information in other forms and formats will be adhered to when providing information in accordance with this scheme.

Charges which may be made for information published under this scheme

The purpose of this scheme is to make the maximum amount of information readily available at minimum inconvenience and cost to the public. Charges made by Saffron Valley Collegiate for routinely published material will be justified and transparent and kept to a minimum.

Material which is published and accessed on a website will be provided free of charge.

Charges may be made for information subject to a charging regime specified by Parliament.

Charges may be made for actual disbursements incurred such as:

- photocopying
- postage and packaging
- the costs directly incurred as a result of viewing information

Charges may also be made for information provided under this scheme where they are legally authorised, they are in all the circumstances, including the general principles of the right of access to information held by public authorities, justified and are in accordance with a published schedule or schedules of fees which is readily available to the public.

If a charge is to be made, confirmation of the payment due will be given before the information is provided. Payment may be requested prior to provision of the information.

Written requests

Information held by Saffron Valley Collegiate that is not published under this scheme can be requested in writing, when its provision will be considered in accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.
